

ngurrak barring

Activism trail walk

Ferns, falls and stories of environmental, social and political change in the Dandenong Ranges.

Location: Sherbrooke Forest

Walking time: 1.5–2.5 hours

Level: Easy/Medium

Djinjama and COLA Studio
Activism Node, 2026

AMENITIES:

P PARKING
♿ TOILETS

⛶ PICNIC AND BBQ FACILITIES
♿ ACCESSIBLE TOILETS

01 At Sherbrooke Picnic Ground, visit the Activism Node by Djinjama and COLA Studio.

02 Follow Sherbrooke Track to the Falls then head down Hillclimb Track.

03 At the intersection of Hillclimb and Pound Creek Track, stay left and continue down along Pound Creek Track.

04 Cross the bridge over Clematis Creek and explore Thrivance: Then, Now, Next.

05 Enjoy a break at a local pub, bar or cafe. The 663 bus runs between Belgrave and Kallista from nearby Monbulk Road.

06 Back on the trail, take either Pound Creek Track or A'vard Track to Terrys Avenue.

07 Walk up Terrys Avenue to Ridge Track which takes you back to the Falls. Follow Sherbrooke Track to return to Sherbrooke Picnic Ground.

Getting here

Sherbrooke Picnic Ground is on Sherbrooke Lodge Rd about an hour's drive from the centre of Melbourne and a short drive from the village of Kallista.

What to bring

Check the weather forecast and wear appropriate shoes and clothing for the conditions. Bring water, and wear a hat and sunscreen in summer.