

ngurrak barring

Dog friendly walk

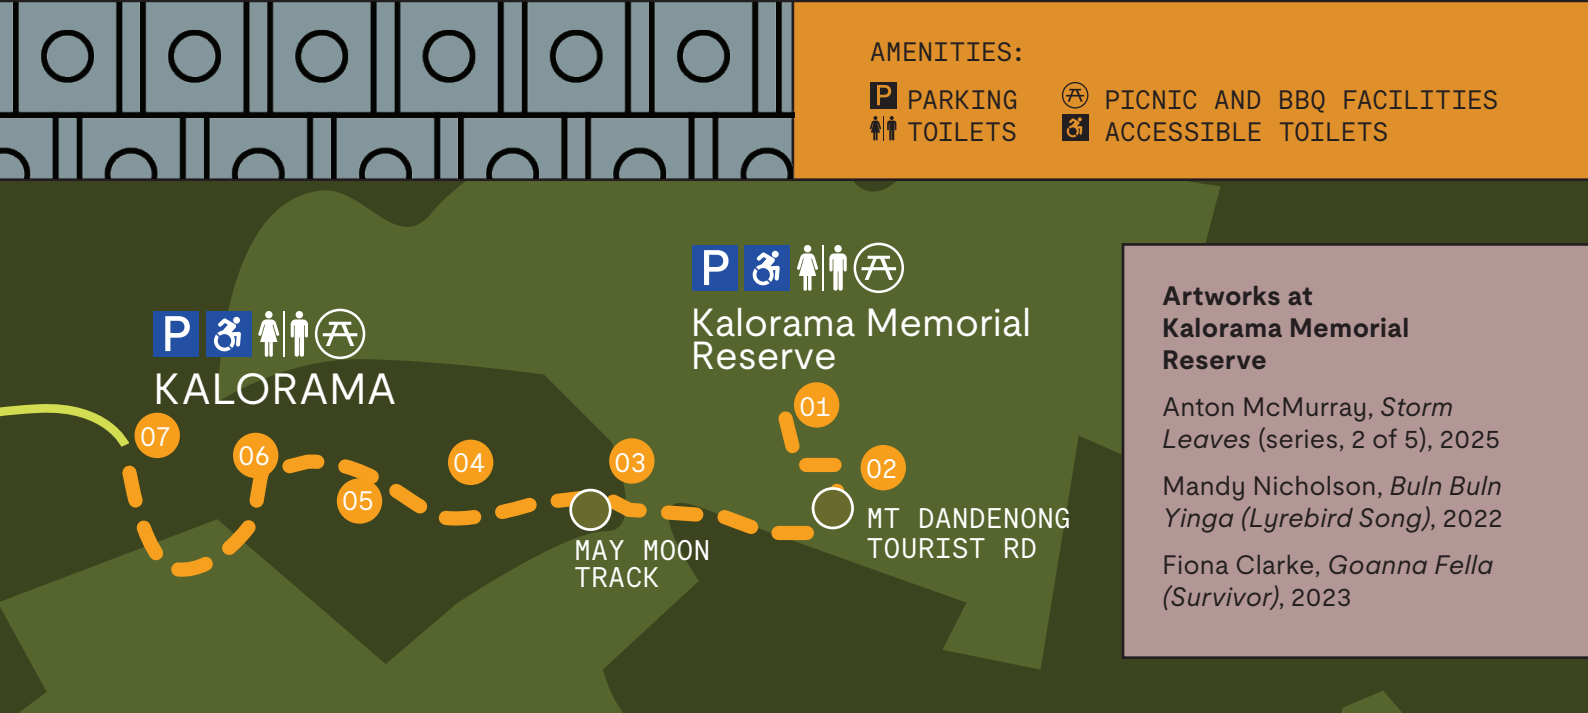

Explore ngurrak barring with your furry friend.
Get a taste of the trails with this guide.

Location: Kalorama
Walking time: 1hr - 1 hr 30 mins
Level: Medium

AMENITIES:

- PARKING
- TOILETS
- PICNIC AND BBQ FACILITIES
- ACCESSIBLE TOILETS

01	Start at Kalorama Memorial Reserve. Let your dog run in the off-leash area.	05	Admire Regeneration - The Listening Place . Place your ear against the harmonic device – what can you hear?
02	Cross Mt Dandenong Tourist Road, turn left and walk to Jeeves Avenue.	06	Walk up to the lookout, take in the views and look for the sign featuring a painting of this outlook by Arthur Streeton.
03	Walk to the end of Jeeves Ave then continue along May Moon Track, reading the storytelling signage along the way.	07	Relax at a local cafe – check opening times when you plan your trip.
04	From the base of Kalorama Park, wind your way up the landscaped pathways.	08	Enjoy the return walk.

Getting here

Kalorama Memorial Reserve is approx. one hour's drive from Melbourne, and 7 mins from the township of Montrose, at the base of the Dandenong Ranges.

Public Transport

The 688 bus runs past Kalorama Memorial Reserve and Kalorama Park – a perfect option to walk one way and take a bus back.

Dog friendly features

Dogs on lead are welcome on this walk. A water bowl and a bin are located at the top of Kalorama Park for your convenience.

